Don't You Know

that you can secure almost immediate relief from Indigestion, and that uncomfortable fullness after meals, by simply taking a dose of Simmons Liver Regulator? Some people think that because it is called Liver Regulator it has nothing to do with Indigestion and the like. It is the inaction of the Liver that causes Indigestion, and that fullness; also Constipation, and those Bilious Headaches. Millions have been made to understand this and have been cured from these troubles by Simmons Liver Regulator—a medicine unfailing and purely vegetable.

From Rev. M. B. Wharton, Baltimore, Md

"It affords me pleasure to add my testimony to the great virtues of Simmons Liver Regulator. I have had experience with it, as occasion demanded, for many years, and regard it as the greatest medicine of the times. So good a medicine deserves universal commendation.

To Take Off Old Paint.

It is very seldom now that you see a painter burn off old paint with a spirit lamp or torch, though there are still a few who stick to the old method. The easiest way to clean paint off wood, or even metal, is to mix lime and salsoda pretty thickly in water and then apply freely with a brush. After a short time the paint can be scraped off without difficulty. Any amateur can use this recipe; only a little care is advisable, as the mixture will remove skin from the hands or face even more rapidly than it will remove paint from wool or metal. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

How to Get a Postoffice.

There are a great many interesting facts and figures connected with postoffices and their masters. For instance, when a countryman is tired of walking or driving several miles for his mail and concludes that the government should bring it nearer, he should state that fact to the first assistant postmaster general, whose clerks will furnish him with instructions and a blank petition for the neighbors to sign. If he wants the new office bad enough to make the government think it a necessity, he will doubtless get it.

At the same time he will be told that in naming it prefixes such as "east," "center" and the like, the suffixes "boro," "burgh," "city," etc., are equally objectionable. Short, characteristic names are preferred.—Kate Field's Washington.

Meters for Measuring Electricity.

In a discussion in London on meters for measuring electrical energy it was shown that in the Frager meter the energy could be made from 300 to 400 times greater than that indicated by the meter by simply closing and opening the circuit at proper intervals. With a Thomson meter it was said to be very easy to force the readings with the aid of a strong magnet applied outside the meter boxes. Fraud is therefore very easily practiced upon such meters, provided one understands them. — New York Telegram.

The Worthy Member.

"Brother Lastly," said the spokesman, "I have an unpleasant duty to perform. There is a report that you have said that one of the best and most worthy members of our congregation is unable to attend service often on account of not having good enough clothes. We have come to ask the name of that member. We don't know of any such person, and a report of that kind is likely to reflect upon us as a congregation that does not look after its poor but worthy members. Will you tell me who it is?"

"Certainly, brethren," replied the Rev. Mr. Lastly, with a brave attempt to be cheerful. "It's my wife."—London Tit-Bits.

Honor Today.

Write it on your heart that every day is the best day in the year. No man has learned anything rightly until he knows that every day is doomsday. Today is a king in disguise. Today always looks mean to the thoughtless in the face of a uniform experience that all good and great and happy actions are made up precisely of these blank todays. Let us not be so deceived; let us unmask the king as he passes.—Emerson.

Didn't See Much.

During a great display of the northern lights the wife of a Rockland sea captain was determined that he should see it, though he cared but little about it. She therefore roused him from his sleep and persisted in her missionary work until finally the man of the house was obliged to crawl out and take a look out of the window.

"Don't see anything especially wonderful about them," said he as he crawled back to bed. "Have seen 'em finer than that a thousand times."

In the morning it was discovered that the window through which the captain had criticised the display was hermetically closed with a blind.—Bangor Commercial.

"Wild Beast" Stories in the Country.

Country people are as eager to accept any rumor of a strange and dangerous creature in the woods as they are to believe in a ghost story. They want it to be true; it gives them something to think about and talk about. It is to their minds like strong drink to their palates. It gives a new interest to the woods, as the ghost story gives a new interest to the old house.—John Burroughs in Century.

Churchill's Compressed Air Washer and Churn.

I wish to call your attention to this Compressed Air Washing Machine, the principles of which are entirely new, but so simple that by an examination the most skeptical cannot fail to be convinced of its practicability. The clothes are thoroughly cleansed without friction, boiling or the use of acids, by the combination and concentration of air, steam and water, which are forced through the fabrics by pneumatic pressure, thereby removing every particle of dirt without injury to the garments. As a Churn, the butter is produced by the agitation which is caused by the action of the compressed air, without any injury to the grain of the butter. I am prepared to call at your house at any time and give you a practical demonstration as to its merits; or show the machine in actual operation, at any time, by calling at our office.

FOR UNITED STATES SENATOR,
Wm. M. Stewart, of Ormsby County.
FOR REPRESENTATIVE IN CONGRESS,
Francis G. Newlands, of Washoe County.
FOR JUDGE OF SUPREME COURT,

FOR REGENT OF STATE UNIVERSITY (long term),
Henry L Fish, of Washoe County.
FOR REGENT OF STATE UNIVERSITY (short term),
Charles E. Mack, of Storey County.

WREN AND NEWLANDS.

Messrs. Wren and Newlands are speaking from the same platform in Eastern Nevada and carrying everything by storm. They addressed a large and enthusiastic audience at Eureka, and all the inhabitants of Hamilton and Ely in White Pine county turned out to hear them. The people of the central and eastern parts of the State recognize that so far as Nevada is concerned there is but one issue involved in the present campaign—the free coinage of silver—and they turn out en masse to hear the champions of that cause. Newlands and Wren expose the hypocrisy of the Harrison and Cleveland men who are masquerading as friends of silver while supporting gold bugs, and they find appreciative audiences among the miners, farmers and business men.

There are but very few spurious silver men in Nevada east of Reno. Men who have to close down their mines by reason of legislation hostile to silver and men who are thrown out of employment by reason of the mines closing down are not deceived by the sophistry of the politician who asserts that he is for free coinage while advocating the election of a Wall street candidate for President. They have a simple but infallible test for distinguishing the genuine from the spurious silver man. If a person advocates the election of Harrison or Cleveland they know he is only silver plated and thinly coated at that, while if for Weaver they know he is genuine through and through. Wren and Newlands advocate the election of Weaver, and their tour through the eastern part of the State is a continual ovation. Their words have the true metallic ring. The blunt miner and plain farmer understand them. No explanation is necessary as in the case of the "plated ware." They are with the people and the people are with them, and will give the Silver ticket almost a unanimous vote on election day.

LOYAL TO THE SILVER TICKET.

The Elko Independent hoists the ticket endorsed by the Winnemucca Convention and promises it loyal support until the polls close in November. It says it does not take the step in obedience to the commands of any ring or combination, but because it believes the interests of the people of the State demands its triumphant election. It says the Democrats of Elko county are in line with the people of other parts of the State in their opposition to the rule of the Eastern gold kings and are earnest in their support of the only candidates for President and Vice President who favor free coinage at the ratio of 16 to 1. The motives which actuate it in advocating the election of Stewart and Newlands are given by the Independent in the following language:

"In supporting the Hon. Wm. M. Stewart for re-election to the Senate of the United States, we but follow the unanimous wish of the Democratic party of Elko county as expressed in its convention yesterday. We shall give him our loyal support, believing as we do that his ceaseless fight for the paramount industry of the State and his independent action in the defeat of the infamous force bill deserves the recognition of the people of Nevada.

"The Hon. Francis G. Newlands is also entitled to the support of every man in this State who values its prosperity above party ties. His tireless efforts in the cause of silver as a private citizen should be taken as a guarantee of faithful service if elected to the House of Representatives."

Senator Stewart is being praised on all sides by the free coinage press of the country. Every Nevada, Colorado and Idaho paper, except the few subsidized gold bug sheets, praise him for the courageous stand he has taken against the Wall street gang. One man like Stewart, says the Hailey News-Miner, would be worth more to Idaho in the Senate than a train load of such politicians as the State has in Congress. It remained for "the straight-out, true blue" Republicans of Washoe county to ignore the great services of the Senator, who is honored and respected by the friends of silver everywhere.

Ex-Congressman Belford of Colorado says: 'I served my State in Congress with General Weaver, and I know him to be one of the best and cleanest, and one of the ablest men who ever appeared upon the floor of Congress. Our views upon financial questions concurred in 1880, and they still concur."

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS!

Matters of Interest From Home and Abroad.

Democratic Gathering.

New York, October 4.—The National Association of Democratic Clubs convened today in the Academy of Music. Long before the hour set for assembling delegates began to arrive and take their seats. The entire orchestra and balcony was reserved for delegates. They were divided into sections by States and Territories, with placards affixed by sticks designating their assigned positions. The room was profusely decorated with flags, banners and portraits of Cleveland and Stevenson. The boxes were filled with fashionable people. As prominent members of the party filed in one after another they were loudly cheered.

About 11 o'clock ex-Lieutenant Governor Chauncey F. Black of Penn., President of the association, entered the hall, followed by ex-President Cleveland. Their entrance was the signal for a tumult of applause. Black called the convention to order and delivered the opening address.

After closing his remarks Black presented Grover Cleveland, who was received with cheers.

The ex-President then proceeded to deliver, as a citizen of New York, an address of welcome.

Cleveland was frequently applauded, especially in his closing injunction. Hon. Patrick A. Collins was then chosen Temporary Chairman and Martin A. McInnis of Montana Vice Chairman. On taking the chair Collins delivered a stirring speech. Various committees were then appointed.

A resolution of sympathy with President Harrison in his affliction in the illness of his wife, and expressing the hope that she would speedily be restored to health, was unanimously adopted.

Resolutions which were adopted reaffirm the national platform and cordially endorse its candidates. They warn the American people of the danger which menaces their common liberties in the manifest purpose of the managers of the monopoly party to debauch suffrage and purchase another lease of the Presidency and another majority in Congress, and ultimately take possession of the Federal Government through the provisions of the unconstitutional and partisan Force bill, designed by the corrupt and unscrupulous conspirators and endorsed by Benjamin Harrison and the so-called Republican Convention of office holders and monopolists.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing four years: Chauncey F. Black of Pennsylvania, President; Lawrence Gardiner of Washington, Secretary; Roswell P. Flower of New York, Treasurer. One Vice President was elected from each State and Territory.

A resolution was adopted extending to Hon. David B. Hill cordial thanks for his able exposition of Democratic principles in the grand speech recently delivered by him in the city of Brooklyn, and profound appreciation of the services thereby rendered by him to the people of this Union as well as to the Democratic party.

The convention adjourned sine die.

Reid Talks.

Boston, October 4.—Music Hall and Faneuil Hall were both filled to overflowing to-night when the Republicans ratified the State and National nominations with speeches by Whitelaw Reid, Gov. McKinley and others. Reid was given a flattering reception.

Hon. Whitelaw Reid delivered an address. In speaking of Cleveland's letter of acceptance he said: "There were three vital points in the Democratic platform—State bank currency, reciporcity and tariff. On two of them Cleveland's letter is absolutely silent, while he writes all around and about the third without being able to say in straightforward language whether protection is unconstitutional, as his party declares it, or right and expedient, as Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson declared it, but he does tell us that tariff reform is still his purpose, that is to say the business of the country must have no peace, everything must be once more unsettled and the whole tariff must be turned over again to be tinkered by a Democratic Congress."

Speaking of the discussion of the Elections bill, Reid said the question involved is, shall every citizen of the United States lawfully entitled to vote, be permitted to vote, and have his vote fairly counted? Republicans say yes, and the Democratic platform practically says no. Cleveland, in this case, has the courage to frankly say ditto to his platform. If this Democratic opposition means anything it means the nullification of the fourteenth and fifteenth articles of the Constitution.

The speaker concluded by saying: "There is one party in this campaign that does not find it needful to slander the country, that does not read its own defeat in the general prosperity. It has nothing to conceal and says what it means."

Evans and Sontag Seen by Hunters.

Monterey, October 4.—The Fresno train robbers and murderers have turned up in this vicinity, they having been seen by a party of quail hunters in the hills near this city. The hunters are positive that the two men were the much-sought-for outlaws, who, upon seeing the hunters, turned about and were soon off and over the hills. They were heavily armed, and the hunters having no affiliation for train robbers, did not pursue them, and lost sight of the robbers. What tends to give credence to the truthfulness of the report is the robbing of a house on the outlying portion of this city last night, and the strange part of the robbery was the fact that only the provisions of the pantry were purloined. The officers have taken up the trail with but little hopes of overtaking the robbers.

He Joins the Democracy.

Philadelphia, October 4.—Ex-Attorney General Wayne Macveagh has written a letter to John W. Carter, Secretary of the Massachusetts Reform Club, in which he announces that he will vote for Grover Cleveland. The writer finds himself in full accord with the Democratic party and finds it more easy to act with them, because the Republican party, securing its return to power four years ago by promising to preserve the matters as they were, at once embarked upon what he regards as a reckless and revolutionary policy, even overturning all the safeguards of legislation in the House of Representatives in their haste to pass the Force bill and McKinley bill, both, to his mind, unnecessary and unwise measures.

Macveagh says of the financial policy of the Republican party: "It ought to be an honest money party, and would be if it could, but while it demanded increased bounties for favorite manufacturers it could not refuse increased bounties to the silver producers, as the votes they control were probably necessary to the passage of the McKinley bill. The poison of a debased currency is making itself daily more and more felt in every channel of business and finance, and it is inevitably driving gold out of the country and leading us to evils of fluctuating, and therefore upon a dishonest currency based upon silver alone.

Execution of McNulty Again Stayed.

San Francisco, October 4.—Sheriff Leumeister received a dispatch from Washington to-day announcing that a writ of error had been granted by Justice Lamar of the United States Supreme Court to John McNulty, who was to have been executed here on October 14th for the murder of John Collins four years ago. This is the third time within the last three months that the execution has been stayed. The constitutionality of the law recently passed by the California Legislature directing that executions shall take place at the State Prison at San Quentin will be tested by McNulty's attorney in the United States Supreme Court and efforts will be made to secure his discharge on the ground that there is no law applying to his case.

The Cholera.

Vienna, October 4.—The Sanitary Commission at Pesth rejected the proposal to close the public schools, but resolved to erect new barracks, flush the sewers and if necessary distribute food gratis. There are only 780 available hospital beds in that city. The Commission, as well as the municipality, treat the outbreak of cholera lightly. This increases the apprehension felt in Vienna.

Count Von Taffe says it is too late and that it is almost impossible to close Vienna against the pest, so the malady is expected here soon. The epidemic is spreading throughout Gallicia.

Application Denied

San Francisco, October 4.—The Board of Election Commissioners, by a vote of four to one to-day, denied the application of the non-partisans for party designation on the municipal ticket. It is understood that the non-partisans will at once apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus to compel the commission to grant the desired heading.

Not Expected to Survive the Night.

London, October 4.—A telegram from Haslemere at 11 P. M says: Lord Tennyson is quite prostrate. It is not likely he will survive to-night.

A CHANCE FOR FREE COINAGE.

Silver Men Can Defeat Both Harrison and Cleveland.

The silver men who believe the remonetization of silver to be the greatest issue of this generation have an opportunity this year to accomplish their object. A wise general always resorts to strategy, especially when he is fighting odds, and by so doing he can defeat the enemy and win a victory.

If there is no election of a President in November the free and unlimited coinage of silver, or of the American product, is a foregone conclusion.

If both Harrison and Cleveland are short the necessary 223 electoral votes it does not mean the election of Cleveland by the Lower House of Congress. This latter alternative comes only in case there is no election by the Electoral College.

CAN DEFEAT BOTH

The Electoral College votes the second Tuesday in January, and between the election by the people of electors in November to choose a President, and the second Tuesday in January, more than two months must elapse. An elector has a right to vote for whom he pleases. It does not necessarily follow that either Mr. Harrison or Mr. Cleveland will be the next President of the United States. Suppose the Republicans capture 210 electoral votes in November and the Democrats the same number, this would give the Populists 25 electors, and would give the Republicans and Populists together 235 electors, if united, more than enough to elect a President, when they meet in January to cast their votes.

A CONFERENCE PROBABLE.

A caucus of National Republicans will surely follow such a result, and Mr. Harrison will join with them in asking the Republican electors to cast their votes for some Republican agreed on who can command enough third party votes to elect him. This, of course, would mean an agreement by which the silver men would get either free coinage absolute, or of the American product, and either means $1 29 per ounce to the American miners.

BOTH OLD PARTIES ALARMED.

The cloud that appeared in the West two months ago, no bigger than a man's hand, is now assuming a threatening appearance to the Eastern politician. The report has been confirmed that Nevada has gone "hell bent" to the third party, and the Republicans cannot count on her vote. Kansas, too, it is thought, will kick clean out of the traces, and it is feared that the contagion will spread to Colorado, Montana Idaho and Wyoming, if not to include Washington, Oregon and Nebraska. That is the way it is viewed by the Republican leaders.

A prominent Republican said the other day to your correspondent with the tacit understanding that his name would not be used:

CONCEDES IT.

"I know what self-interest will do, and I expect the silver States to not only vote against Harrison and Cleveland but to send speakers and money into the doubtful States adjoining them, and it is as sure as death and taxes if they control the balance of power in the Electoral College they will put silver back to $1 29 and name the next President Why," said the man, continuing, "suppose Pennsylvania's iron interests was to be assailed like Colorado's silver interest is, there is no power under heaven that would prevent her from voting against the party or parties who did it, and I look for Colorado to speak in trumpet tones from the summit of the Nation that she will protect her own."

WHO WILL BE NAMED.

Some of the Republicans are already discussing the chances of different men who could consistently accept an election from the allied forces and whom the Republicans and Populists would both vote for. It is taken for granted that the Republican electors would vote for any man satisfactory to Mr. Harrison and that the third party electors would vote for any good Republican who would agree to sign a free coinage bill. This, however, would not suit the Republicans unless it was confined to the American product or a probative tariff was put on foreign silver until Europe remonetized it. There is no doubt, however, that the Populist would not miss the opportunity to knock both Cleveland and Harrison out, and gain at the same time one of the principal doctrines of their party even though it were confined to the American product.

MUST STAND TOGETHER.

In view of the power to be gained by it the voters of the silver States will be ninnies if they do not stand shoulder to shoulder and carry all their States for the Independent electors. They should call attention of the South to the price of cotton and the fact that it has year by year kept pace with the decline of silver, and they should then turn to the Northwest and point to the price of wheat, as it has step by step declined with silver.

THE MIGHTY WEST.

Politicians respect nothing but strength. The two old parties in the East look on the cause of silver with more contempt than Sullivan regarded Corbett before the fight at New Orleans.

It is now thought here that the West is getting ready to rise up in her might, champanion her own cause and strike back. If she does she will win; if she does not no one will have any respect for and the cause of silver will be doomed.—From a Washington dispatch.

Baggage Smashing

Should be a crime. It nettles the best natured man to see his baggage handled. It sours the sweetest temperament and sends a chill down his back every time. For such a sensation punish the baggage smasher and take Simmons Liver Regulator. It will soothe the agitated feelings, keep down the bile and make you vigorous enough to stand up for your rights.

It appears that no school trustees are to be elected at the general election in November, District Attorney Julien having decided that the present trustees will hold office until next May.

NONE BUT ROYAL

Baking Powder is absolutely pure. No other equals it, or approaches it in leavening strength, purity, or wholesomeness. (See U. S. Gov't Reports.) No other is made from cream of tartar specially refined for it and chemically pure. No other makes such light, sweet, finely-flavored, and wholesome food. No other will maintain its strength without loss until used, or will make bread or cake that will keep fresh so long, or that can be eaten hot with impunity, even by dyspeptics. No other is so economical.

The official chemists of the United States and Canada, State analysts, municipal boards of health, and physicians indorse the great qualities of the Royal Baking Powder.

THE SIERRAVILLE FAIR.

A Letter from the "Journal's" Correspondent.

SIERRAVILLE, October 3, 1892.

ED. JOURNAL:—The Eleventh District Fair at Sierraville opened this morning with all favorable prospects. The weather, which is the first consideration for a successful fair, promises to be good. The attendance at the track, however, was small, but will increase as interest in the race program progresses. In and about Sierraville everything is lively and a glorious time is anticipated for the balance of the week. The usual quota of sports are in attendance and betting is quite lively but does not compare with that at the Nevada State Fair.

The speed program started off with a trot of the three minute class, best three in five, between Lady Mac, Fred Mac and Jack.

Lady Mac sold favorite in the pools and won in three straight heats, Fred Mac second. Time 2.48, 2:43¼ and 2-44¼.

Second race, two-year-olds, single dash, half mile—Trumbo, Two Bits, Gold Cloud and Crocks. Trombo, the favorite, won the race, Gold Cloud second, Two Bits third. Time, :52¼.

Third race, one-fourth mile and repeat—Red Rock, Nelson, Mountain Meadow Butter and Norman. Red Rock sold favorite, Norman second choice and the other two in the field. Nelson won in two straight heats, Red Rock second, Butter third. Time, :24¼, :24¼.

Nelson was an easy winner and as he came under the wire the shout that was raised by the short-enders was defeaning, as the odds were very large. The Quincy boys fell hard on their old favorite, Red Rock, and the Reno boys kept up their end and replenished their purses by backing the field. They also got in on the second race by playing Trumbo, so look out for squalls when we get back, that is if one does not strike us and land our boat before the week ends.

RACELETS.

The last I saw of the Gazette reporter he was playing the merry-go-around.

Dan O'Keefe is wearing a pleasant smile. He has an idea he can break the Sierraville ranchers. Look a little out, Dan, you are liable to run against a snag and be cold decked.

Wm. Edwards, proprietor of the Quincy Hotel, has the pool privileges.

Reno is well represented at the Fair, and, of course, the boys are all having a jolly time.

What was the matter with Fly Remington when he left Reno? By mistake he brought his linen duster instead of his overcoat. Too many fairs, Fly. BOB J.

Said Gladstone to Harrison: "Arrange your currency to suit yourself. That of the British Empire suits me well enough." Harrison to himself: "Well, I declare, that is cool! Here we've been playing into British hands for twenty years, and at last we've found a Premier too honest to help me out with a little trick to serve till after election!"

Still Growing.

A glance at the map of Powning's Addition shows that with but very few exceptions all of the most eligible lots have been sold. Along the entire river front, or Riverside Avenue, there are only three corners left, while on Second street there are but four that are not sold. People wonder how it happens, but Reno keeps on growing just the same, and those who are still hunting bargains should buy a lot in Powning's Addition while lots are yet reasonable.

Jacob Mushrush, who resided in Reno for several years, died at Los Angeles on September 12th from the effect of a surgical operation. He was as well as usual when he submitted to the operation, which was successfully performed. He was considered out of danger the morning of the day on which he died. His wife went to see him at the hospital and a few moments after her arrival he took hold of her hand and expired. He was a native of Ohio, 53 years of age.

Hydraulic Testing.

A plant for hydraulic testing purposes is to be installed near the town of Santhia, Italy. The proposed establishment is intended for the determination of many points at present more or less obscure in the flow of water through large sluices. It is to be located between the Cavour and the Cighano canals, where the requisite volume of water for such experiments can be easily obtained, the Cigliano canal being elevated about 88½ feet above the Cavour canal. The preliminary plans provide for the construction of a large and small sluice, measuring basins and weirs, and accommodation for the testing of all kinds of hydraulic apparatus.—New York Telegram.

A Word About His Mother.

A neat report is recorded of the Marquis of Carmarthen, the Duke of Leed's eldest son, who, at the recent elections in England, was returned for Brixton by a large majority. The night before the election, while he was addressing a mass meeting, he was interrupted by a cry of, "Does your mother know you're out?"—a reference to his very youthful appearance. 'Oh, yes, she knows I'm out," said the young candidate, "and she hopes tomorrow she'll know I'm in."—London Letter.

The Failure of the Peach Crop.

The newspapers come filled with reports of the failure of the eastern fruit crops. The Maryland and Delaware peach crop, which is the heaviest competitor we have for our California product, is reckoned at less than one-sixth of an average yield. The heavy rains have caused a dropping of fruit in the peach country. The loss is over $2,000,000 to the eastern peach growers.—Pomona (Cal.) Progress.

A FIGHT WITH CACTUS

A RISKY STORY OF A WESTERN MISADVENTURE AT NIGHT.

A Ludicrous Adventure of a Party Hunting Indians in Southwestern Mexico. The Bravery of a Leader Brought Ridicule Upon Himself.

"Halt! What's that?" said our leader in a sharp whisper.

It was a clear moonlight night in the extreme southwest of Mexico.

I was visiting a friend who conducted a large ranch and haciends there.

A local revolt had just been quelled in the neighborhood and a spirit of lawlessness still pervaded the atmosphere. Only the night before my friend had been fired upon and one of his storehouses robbed by a band of Indians some fifteen or twenty strong. Early in the morning four of us, under the leadership of our host, had set out upon the track of the robbers.

We were well mounted, and resting only a few hours at noon had followed hard after them till nearly midnight. If we met them in a fair field we could drive them into quarters like cows to a pen, but we had no mind to run into a trap in the dark with five against fifteen; hence caution.

"Halt! What's that?" our leader had whispered. We had come to the edge of a dense woods, and across an open space, upon the brow of a low sand hill, clearly outlined in the moonlight against the sky, we had discovered a dozen or more half naked fellows, with their arms extended in every direction, engaged in some sort of a weird, fantastic dance.

We could not see their legs, for the tops of the trees beyond the hill rose waist high, making a black background, but their arms moved slowly to and fro and we could easily imagine their legs keeping company.

"Those are the thieves!" our host muttered. "I know them, even at night. You fellows just come to the edge of the wood, where they can see you without knowing how many there are of you, and I'll have them down here in no time."

He rode out alone to the foot of the hill.

It required no little courage, and we watched him with proportionate admiration.

The figures did not cease their dance or notice him. Suddenly, with his rifle at his shoulder, he called to them: "I have you there! If one of you moves I'll shoot him dead!"

The wind had been blowing through the trees, so that we could not have heard their response, but fortunately at that moment it ceased, and in the deep silence which settled down upon the forest in such a momentary lull we waited for the result.

Every Indian suddenly ceased his dancing and stood like a statue outlined against the sky.

"Come down here now," shouted our host. "Come quietly, too, for the first man who makes any trouble drops dead."

We could hear a sound, as of a hurried consultation of some sort, going on upon the hill for a moment, but the wind sprung up again before we could distinguish a single voice, and to our utter astonishment the fellows actually began their solemn dance again.

"Come down or I'll shoot!" roared our host, but they kept on dancing and he did shoot.

Then there was commotion enough. A wild cry, followed by a cloud of dust, rose from the brow of the hill.

"Fire!" yelled our host, and we responded with a well aimed volley, while he whipped out his heavy revolver and gave them another peppering.

There was a perfect bedlam of screams from the hill, and the dust hid everything from view. They were either coming down upon us in an unexpected horde or running for their lives.

For us it was either fly or follow. We waited irresolutely for the word of our leader, when the dust settled and there stood the Indians, silently going on with their fantastic dance as though we were a hundred miles away.

With a fierce ejaculation our host put spurs to his horse and dashed up the hill. We followed, without command, to find him upon the summit, sitting on the ground beneath a line of gaunt and ghostlike prickly pears—the ungainly cactus of Mexico.

They extended along the brow of the hill, their naked, skeleton branches spreading out in every unaccountable way and swaying solemnly in the breeze.

Among the roots a multitude of burrows in the dry dust showed where the sandbirds had been lying, half buried, and quietly sleeping; and it was their noisy yelp we heard when they were frightened away by our host's duel with the cactus.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Let's reason together. Here's a firm, one of the largest the country over, the world over; it has grown step by step, through the years to greatness—and it sells patent medicines!—ugh!

"That's enough!"—

Wait a little—

This firm pays the newspapers good money (expensive work, this advertising!) to tell the people that they have faith in what they sell, so much faith that if they cant benefit or cure they don't want your money. Their guarantee is not indefinite or relative, but definite and absolute—if the medicine doesn't help, your money is "on call."

Suppose every sick man and every feeble woman tried these medicines and found them worthless, who would be the loser, you or they?

The medicines are Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery," for blood diseases, and his Favorite Prescription," for woman's peculiar ills. If they help toward health, they cost $1,00 a bottle each! If they don't, they cost nothing!

FOR LADIES ONLY!

just what you need. It is the only sure absolutely safe preventive ever discovered by medical science. Every bottle guaranteed. For sale by

"August Flower"

For two years I suffered terribly with stomach trouble, and was for all that time under treatment by a physician. He finally, after trying everything, said stomach was about worn out, and that I would have to cease eating solid food for a time at least. I was so weak that I could not work. Finally on the recommendation of a friend who had used your preparations with beneficial results, I procured a bottle of August Flower, and commenced using it. It seemed to do me good at once. I gained in strength and flesh rapidly; my appetite became good, and I suffered no bad effects from what I ate. I feel now like a new man, and consider that August Flower has entirely cured me of Dyspepsia in its worst form. JAMES E. DEDERICK, Saugerties, New York.

A worn-out Stomach.

W. B. Utsey, St. George's, S. C., writes: I have used your August Flower for Dyspepsia and find it an excellent remedy.

Better Than Writing.

The other day a young lady visiting friends in Sewickley decided to prolong her stay—a usual decision with those visiting Sewickley. She wished to notify her father of her plans. She neither wrote nor telegraphed, but simply went to the Sewickley telephone station and talked to her father, who was at his office in a town in the eastern end of the state, over 200 miles away. The miracle of the talking wire is one which seems more miraculous as the long distance telephone reaches points hitherto attained only by the telegraph or the slower process of the mails.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

The Artist and His Kaleidoscope.

The kaleidoscope is of wonderful assistance in geometrical drawing, and people who suppose that this little toy is of no use will probably be surprised to learn that the greatest portion of the geometrical designs employed in art and architecture are copied by the artist from the figures produced by the kaleidoscope. The instruments employed are somewhat larger than the toys sold in the shops, and some of them are fastened upon stands in such a way as will enable the draftsman to retain his instrument in the same position for a considerable length of time, and thus give him an opportunity to make copies of the figures produced.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Heathen Men of Mashoupa.

Mashoupa was once the residence of a missionary, but the church is now abandoned and falling into ruins, because when asked to repair the edifice at their own expense the men of Mashoupa waxed wroth, and replied irreverently that God might repair his own house, and one old man who received a blanket for his reward for attending divine service is reported to have remarked when the dole was stopped, "No more blanket, no more halleluiah." I fear me the men of Mashoupa are wedded to heathendom.—Fortnightly Review

Without Bone.

A funny mistake occurred lately in printing labels for a meat preserving company. The printer had been in the habit of labeling tins of beef or mutton, as the case might be, with the words "without bone" prominently displayed. The company having added kidney soup to its list, the new article was duly ticketed as "Kidney soup—without bone."—London Tit-Bits.
